Councilmember Polanski posed questions regarding item number 6, that all guidelines are subject to the recommendation and discretion of the Public Arts Committee, and the guidelines in the memo from Vice Mayor Gomez and Councilmember Giordano regarding number 6. She stated that she preferred that item number 6 guidelines in the memo be deleted and the Arts Commission have the final discretion with the Council having final approval. ### 5. Ordinance to Provide Notices of Appeal and Appeal the Animal Regulation

Tambri Heyden, Planning and Neighborhood Services Director, presented the staff report. She reported the City's Animal Regulation Ordinance provides the ability for violators to request a hearing conducted by the Animal Hearing Officer. Decisions by the Officer can be appealed to an appeal board to be established by a City Council resolution. She stated such an appeal board has never been formed and recommends that a remedy to contest an administrative officer's decision be through the court system.

Councilmember Giordano stated that residents who disagree with this citation should have an avenue to appeal rather than going to court and suggested the Council as the Appeals Board.

Councilmember Livengood stated he is in favor of having a step in between taking a matter to court. He stated the City Council should act as an Appeals Board so the citizens can address their government first.

ORDINANCES*13.
Ordinance Rescinding Ethics
Evaluation Panel

Richard Pio Roda, Interim City Attorney, presented the staff report. He reported that Ordinance No. 265, adopted and codified on August 17, 2004 as Title I, Chapter 40, "Ethics Evaluation Panel," established and created procedures for an Ethics Evaluation Panel in the City. This new ordinance would rescind Ordinance No. 265, removing Chapter 40 of Title I, "Ethics Evaluation Panel," from the Milpitas Municipal Code. The Citizen's Advisory Commission Chair (CAC) drafted a letter respectfully requesting that the Council take no further action on the second reading to rescind the Ethics Evaluation Panel from the Milpitas Municipal code.

Councilmember Polanski read into the record the letter from the Citizens Advisory Commission (CAC) stating their opposition to rescinding the Ethics Evaluation Panel at this time and requesting that the Council take no action until the Council has reviewed the final report by Dr. Shanks and the annual ethics evaluation panel report by Dr. Riley.

Councilmember Giordano read into the record a letter from Supervisor Pete McHugh addressing comments made at the April 14 Ethics Evaluation Panel meeting. He objected to comments regarding his 1996 campaign and against Victor Ajlouny. In his letter he stated, for the record, that his 1996 campaign was not a "win at all costs" campaign and he has complete trust in Mr. Ajlouny. He expressed dismay about the false allegations made at the April 14 Ethics Evaluation Panel meeting and recommended the Council reassess the Panel's procedures.

Commissioner Craig Ranker, of the CAC, spoke in support of keeping the Ethics Evaluation Panel. He requested that the Council work with the Panel to improve the process and improve the ethics ordinance.

A gentleman (name illegible), advocated for retaining the Ethics Evaluation Panel and the need to enforce ethics for elected and appointed officials.

Aldyth Parle, a member of the Ethics Panel, stated that her support for the actions the Council has taken in the formation and support of the Code of Ethics. She stated accountability is the most difficult part to develop and receives the most criticism. She advocated to build on the accountability portion of the Code of Ethics.

The Council entered into a discussion regarding the pros and cons of the Ethics Evaluation Commission. In summary, Councilmembers expressed the following:

Councilmember Polanski stated she was at the Ethics Hearing on April 14 and Supervisor McHugh was not present. She stated that some of points made in his letter were not factual and that there will be no decision from the Ethics Panel until Thursday, April 21.

Mayor Esteves stated his opposition to removing the Ethics Evaluation Panel and he strongly supports the Code of Ethics. He advocated for improving the process and asked the public to give the Council their input. He solicited for the residents to review the mailers that were received and make their own conclusions, and expressed concern about campaign ethics.

Councilmember Giordano stated, in response to Commissioner Ranker and Mayor Esteves, that the Ethics Evaluation Panel creates a greater problem with people's reputations and that she has not received any comments from the public requesting the Panel be retained. She further stated she studied the issue and was disappointed at the tone and tenor of some of the Ethics meetings regarding unsubstantiated charges of illegal acts and the failure of the lead evaluator to keep the discussion on target. She addressed her concerns about the allegations made against Officer Emmanuele, Firefighter Mitch Kimbel, Vice Mayor Gomez, Supervisor McHugh, Karen Serpa and Victor Ajlouny, and Councilmember Livengood and herself by association. She further responded to allegations that residents are intimidated by police officers. She addressed seven facts she found to be true that has led her to the conclusion that the Council has not rushed to judgment to rescind the Ethics Panel. She stated that it is a failed program and a waste of taxpayer dollars and will be voting in favor of the second reading and the elimination of the Panel.

Councilmember Livengood stated he spoke to Aldyth Parle regarding the Ethics Panel and researched what happened at the last Ethics Evaluation Panel on April 14. He stated there seemed to be an attempt to turn the Ethics Panel into a depository for misinformation, rumors, character assassination, and unsubstantiated claims. He expressed dismay that the Ethics Panel did not attempt to stop the discussion that was not related to the complaint. He stated the Panel needs to be rescinded and that a new procedure for handling complaints be developed.

Councilmember Polanski stated that Councilmembers Livengood and Giordano were not at the Ethics Evaluation Panel on April 14 and expressed dismay about their comments regarding the testimony of the respondents. She stated the respondents and claimant had the right to present evidence they felt was important and that the process should be allowed to finish before Council opinions are rendered.

Vice Mayor Gomez stated he felt that the Panel has become a political tool and the Panel is not consistent in its decision making process. He expressed concern about the length of time to respond to allegations and many of the allegations are ambiguous. He further expressed concern about the proceedings at the April 14th Ethics Panel meeting and testimony that was not relevant to the complaint.

MOTION: Waive reading beyond the title of the ordinance and adopt the ordinance.

4. Ethics Project Final Report

Tambri Heyden, Planning and Neighborhood Services Director, presented the staff report. She stated the final deliverable under the Ethics Project contract is the preparation of a final report that summarizes the first year of the project and assess its success and make recommendations for improvements. She stated the report is included in the Council's agenda materials and has been reviewed by the Ethics Steering Committee and Community Advisory Commission. She reviewed the Ethics Program 2004 activities, the seven recommendations and the three goals.

Dr. Shanks availed himself to the Council for questions and addressed a few of the points in his recommendations. He requested the Council provide the direction on where the program should go and what the Council wants to implement.

Councilmember Livengood posed questions regarding cultural recognition and the decision making pocket card.

Mayor Esteves stated the Ethics Program has brought awareness to the City and reaffirmed his desire to have the program move forward. He stated he supports the goals, ethical candidates, the lobbyist, and the moments of reflection sections.

Councilmember Polanski stated she has heard from the community that they would like the Council to embrace the ethics values. She stated she believes in the Ethics Code and the recommended activities and goals.

Councilmember Giordano commented about Dr. Shanks remarks to the Milpitas Post. She further stated she supports recommendations 1 and 2 and read excerpts from his report that she supported. She stated that she has lost confidence and that this program has not worked. She stated she would like to explore other avenues than consultants to provide ethics training and implement the program.

Vice Mayor Gomez assured Dr. Shanks that he did feel he had any bias against the Council and addressed the comments made by Dr. Shanks to the Milpitas Post.

A gentleman (name illegible) expressed concerns about the implementation of the Code of Ethics and the need for the Council to represent the citizens' interests.

Vice Mayor Gomez pointed out that the Moments of Reflection was rescinded as part of the Open Government Ordinance and expressed dismay on how the League of Women's Voters conducted their candidate forum. He further expressed concern regarding the price of the program, and the oversight of the Open Government Commission.

Councilmember Livengood stated he had a lot of questions regarding this program and suggested the item be continued due the lateness of the hour.

MOTION: Continue this item to the May 3, 2005 Council meeting.
